PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION

"MOTOR CARRIER ACT"

BILLS OF LADING

IN ORDER to provide a convenient reference, notice is hereby given of the conditions to be contained in bills of lading in use by motor carriers, as set out in the sample form of bill of lading referred to in paragraph 9.22 of the regulations under the "Motor Carrier Act" and prescribed by the Public Utilities Commission on September 16th, 1940. The conditions are as follows:—

Section 1: The Carrier of any of the goods herein described shall be liable for any loss thereof or damage thereto, except as hereinafter provided.

Section 2: In the case of shipments from one point in British Columbia to another point in British Columbia, handled by two or more carriers, the Carrier issuing this bill of lading, in addition to its other liability hereunder, shall be liable for any loss, damage, or injury to such goods from which the other carrier is not by the terms of this bill of lading relieved, caused by or resulting from the act, neglect, or default of any other carrier to which such goods may be delivered in British Columbia, or over whose motor-vehicle route or routes such goods may pass in British Columbia, the onus of proving that such loss was not so caused or did not so result being upon the Carrier issuing this bill of lading. The Carrier issuing this bill of lading shall be entitled to recover from the other carrier on whose motor-vehicle route or routes the loss, damage, or injury to the said goods shall have been sustained the amount of such loss, damage, or injury, as it may be required to pay hereunder as may be evidenced by any receipt, judgment, or transcript thereof. Nothing in this section shall deprive the holder of this bill of lading or party entitled to the goods of any remedy or right of action which he may have against the Carrier issuing this bill of lading or any other carrier.

Section 3: The Carrier shall not be liable for loss, damage, or delay to any of the goods herein described caused by the act of God, the King's or public enemies, riots, strikes, defect or inherent vice in the goods, or the act or default of the shipper or owner; for differences in weights of grain, seed, or other commodities caused by natural shrinkage; the authority of law, or by quarantine. For loss, damage, or delay, except where cartage is to be performed by the Carrier or its agents, caused by fire occurring after forty-eight hours (exclusive of legal holidays) or, in the case of bonded goods, seventy-two hours (exclusive of legal holidays), after written notice of the arrival of said goods at destination has been sent or given the Carrier's liability shall be that of warehouseman only. Except in case of negligence of the Carrier (and the burden of proving freedom from such negligence shall be on the Carrier), the Carrier shall not be liable for loss, damage, or delay occurring while the goods are stopped and held in transit upon the request of the party entitled to make such request.

Section 4: No Carrier is bound to transport said goods by any particular motor-vehicle or vessel, or in time for any particular market, or otherwise than with due dispatch, unless by specific agreement endorsed hereon. Every Carrier in case of physical necessity shall have the right to forward said goods by any conveyance or route between the point of shipment and the point of destination; but if such diversion be from a highway to any water route the liability of the Carrier shall be the same as though the entire carriage were by highway.

The amount of any loss or damage for which any Carrier is liable shall be computed on the basis of the value of the goods at the place and time of shipment under this bill of lading (including the freight and other charges, if paid, and the duty if paid or payable, and not refunded), unless a lower value has been represented in writing by the shipper or has been agreed upon or is determined by the classification or tariff upon which the rate is based, in any of which events such lower value shall be the amount to govern such computation; whether or not such loss or damage occurs from negligence.

When the goods are carried at owner's risk, such conditions are intended to cover only such risks as are necessarily incidental to transportation, and shall not relieve the Carrier from liability for any loss, damage, or delay which may result from any negligence or omission of the Carrier or his agent or employees, and the burden of proving freedom from such negligence or omission shall be on the Carrier.

Notice of loss, damage, or delay must be made in writing to the Carrier at the point of delivery or to the Carrier at the point of origin within two months after delivery of the goods, or in case of failure to make delivery, then within two months after reasonable time for delivery has elapsed. Unless notice is so given, the Carrier shall not be liable.

Section 5: Goods not removed by the party entitled to receive them within forty-eight hours (exclusive of legal holidays) or, in the case of bonded goods, within seventy-two hours (exclusive of legal holidays), after written notice has been sent or given may be kept in the warehouse of the Carrier, subject to a reasonable charge for storage and to the Carrier's responsibility as warehouseman only, or may at the option of the Carrier (after written notice of the Carrier's intention to do so has been sent or given) be removed to and stored in a public or licensed warehouse at the cost of the owner and there held at the risk of the owner and without liability on the part of the Carrier, and subject to a lien for all freight and other lawful charges, including a reasonable charge for storage.

Section 6: No Carrier shall be bound to carry any documents, specie, or any articles of extraordinary value not specifically rated in the published classification or tariffs, unless a special agreement to do so (the duty of obtaining such special agreement to be on the Carrier when the nature of such goods is discussed herein) and a stipulated value of the articles are endorsed hereon. If such goods are carried without a special agreement and the nature of the goods is not disclosed hereon the Carrier shall not be liable for any loss or damage thereto.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Ebenezer Baptist Church" has this day been incorporated as a Society under the "Societies Act."

The locality in which the operations of the Society will be chiefly carried on is Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-three.

[L.S.] S. W. TAYLOR,
Registrar of Companies.

The objects of the Society are:—

(a) To provide for the worship of God, preach and teach the Word of God; to win people to the Lord Jesus Christ; to administer the ordinances of the New Testament; to seek spiritual improvement of its members; to minister to its own community; and to extend the kingdom of Christ in all the earth:

(b) Believing the teachings and practices of the New Testament Baptist Fellowship we pledge to adhere to the following distinctive principles: The Bible, the standard of faith and practice; the Lordship of Jesus Christ; regenerated membership; believer's baptism by immersion; progressive sanctification; soul liberty; separation of church and state; congregational governments:

(c) To believe that the Bible is God's Word, that it was written by men divinely and uniquely inspired, that it is absolutely trustworthy and has supreme authority in all matters of faith and conduct:

(d) To believe in Jesus Christ, God's only begotten Son, conceived of the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, sinless in His life making atonement for the sin of the world by His death on the cross; we believe in His bodily resurrection, His ascension into heaven, His high priestly intercession for His people and His personal visible return to the world according to His promise:

(e) To believe in the Holy Spirit who came forth from God to convince the world of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment, and to regenerate, sanctify, and comfort those who believe in Jesus Christ:

(f) To believe in the Church—a living, spiritual body of which Jesus Christ is the Head and of which all regenerated people are members; we believe that a visible church is a company of believers in Jesus Christ, buried with Him in baptism and associated for worship, work, and fellowship; we believe that to these visible churches were committed, for observance, "Till He Come," the ordinances of baptism and the Lord's supper, and that God has laid upon these churches the task of persuading a lost world to accept Jesus Christ as Saviour and to enthrone Him as Lord and Master;

we believe that human betterment and social improvements are inevitable products of the gospel:

(g) To believe that each Church is independent and autonomous and must be free from interference by any ecclesiastical or political authority; that, therefore, church and state must be kept separate as having different functions, each fulfilling its duties free from the dictation or patronage of the other:

(h) Having been led as we believe by the Spirit of God to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Saviour, and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, we do now, in the presence of God, angels, and this assembly most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ; we engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love:

(i) To strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge, holiness, and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrines; to give it a sacred pre-eminence over all institutions of human origin; to contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expense of the church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the gospel through all nations; we also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling, backbiting, and excessive anger, and to be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Saviour:
